Welcome to your one-stop planning guide for EMERGE-N-ENGAGE: Out Of The Shadows & Into The World with Thru-The-Roof Student Ministry. I am excited about our Winter Conference this year and I hope you are as well. I believe the theme for the conference this year is life-changing. We are called to emerge from a life lived in darkness to a life lived in the marvelous light of Christ. We are called to engage the Kingdom of God with the world around us. We are called to step out and step forward and this year, we will respond to the call. As parents, this packet of information is designed for you to be informed and to help us help our teens by making the most of the weekend.

You will find included in this packet a list of rules and guidelines, a daily schedule, a checklist and contact information while we are in Gatlinburg. The rules and guidelines are the same as for every other overnight trip with our Student Ministry. These guidelines are also available on the website. Please become familiar with the information provided in this packet. The rules are in place for the safety of the group and safety of your teenager(s). The schedule is tentative and there is a possibility times and locations could change.

A current medical release with information on your teenager(s) is/are needed for this trip. If you are in need of a medical form, please let me know.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. Also, please join me in praying for this conference that this would be the beginning of great things for the student ministry here at EMBC!

Soli Deo Gloria....
